Shaw Island Elementary is a K-8 multi-grade school typically serving around ten students. As one of two teachers in a two-room schoolhouse, you will be teaching all core subjects to a range of grade levels in your classroom. We are a public school dedicated to meeting and exceeding state learning standards.

Our rural island, located two hours north of Seattle in the beautiful San Juan Islands, has a total population of about 130 year-round residents. While our building is historic, our resources and technology are state-of-the-art, and our students receive an excellent education. Enhanced by the resources of caring, involved community members, the innovative curriculum includes a strong emphasis on science and math, a vibrant music program, and individual attention for all learners.

This position is a remarkable opportunity for the right candidate. If you have recently completed your certification and are looking for a fulfilling place to begin teaching, or if you have spent your career in a more traditional setting and are interested in bringing your experience, ideas, and creativity to a small learning community, this could be the dream teaching situation for you.
